do better than I; but he and I together will mess of it. If I am to render real service to I must have your absolute confidence. I requires much courage to write you this lett be so easy to accuse me of ambition or pride

17th, Milan:

The tricolour flag floats over Milan, Pavij all the cities of Lombardy. Orders are issued divisions with all they need, so that they may active operations and carry them through wi ity and dash that have given us our victorie

I have sent off to Tortona at least two mi of jewels and silver ingots.

£0th. Soldiers! You have rolled dowi Apennines like a torrent; you have overthro tered all that opposed your advance. Milan the republican flag floats over Lombardy. Ticino, the Adda, could not stay your advan< day. Yes, soldiers, you have accomplished there nothing left to do ? Come, forward! \? forced marches to make, more enemies to o laurels to win, more wrongs for which to cla

21st. We have imposed 20 millions of f Milanese.

££d. The troops are marching towards the Tyrol. The Austrian army receives reinf ore

25th, 2 A.M..:

(To General Berthier.) I am just back f re Pavia. We met about a thousand peasant